

Facilities Design and Construction

December 19, 2008

Shoreline Medical Center YNHH
Emergency Department
HEPA Filter Installation

To Whom It May Concern:

Panicca Construction Corporation recently completed the installation of a HEPA filter negative air system for two exam rooms in our Emergency Department at the Shoreline Medical Center. The project was completed within a tight time frame of four days with only minor interruption to the operations of the area. Preconstruction preparation was excellent and post construction follow thru has been satisfactory.

Regards,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Maurice C. Cohen'.

Maurice C. Cohen, AIA
Senior Project Manager
Facilities Design and Construction
Yale New Haven Hospital